

Vincennes University
Ben Davis University High School

Reading Adjunct Faculty

Vincennes University seeks part-time adjunct faculty to teach Reading Techniques Level II (READ 011) at Ben Davis University High School in the MSD Wayne Township, Indianapolis, IN. Ben Davis University High School (BDUHS) is an early college high school where students earn both a high school diploma and associate's degree at the same time. Part-time candidates must hold a B.A. or B.S. in a related field. Experience working with high school age students is a plus. The individual in this position will be teaching the remainder of the semester in two reading courses starting the week of March 9. Professional development provided by Vincennes University is a requirement in this position. VU is committed to diversity in the college community.

Interested applicants should submit a letter of application and resume to Vincennes University, Human Resources, 1002 North First Street, Vincennes, IN. 47591 or by email jobs@vinu.edu . Applicants will be accepted on an on-going basis and applicants will be contacted as part-time openings become available.